

PEPS

FOR GRANDPARENTS

Where Grandparents gather, connect and create community

PEPS recognizes the vital role of grandparents in their children's and grandchildren's lives and offers opportunities for grandparents to come together for support, shared information, and learning.

2018 Grandparent Gatherings

Visit www.peps.org for meeting locations, and facilitators/presenters.

PEPS Benefit Luncheon - Tuesday, March 6, 11 am-1 pm

Join us to support future parents in our community who count on us. Two tables are reserved for grandparents to meet and mingle!

Happy Hour - Thursday, April 12, 5:30-7:30 pm

Topic: How can you stay connected with children and grandchildren through technology and social media? Join us for this hands-on tutorial and introductions to social media tools such as Facebook and Skype/Facetime.

Getting Around: A Day Out - Wednesday, July 11, 2-5 pm

We are planning a field trip for grandparents. We'll plan for a warm day and a fun outing! Details will be updated closer to the date.

National Grandparents Day Happy Hour - Saturday, September 8, 4-6 pm

Topic: We will celebrate National Grandparents Day with a Happy Hour and refreshments, along with a discussion of your Grandparent Legacy.

Brown Bag Lunch - Thursday, December 6, 12-1:30 pm

Topic: Positive Discipline Grandma and Grandpa Style

Grandparent Resources

Visit www.peps.org/programs/peps-for-grandparents for grandparent resources and sign up for our grandparent mailing list.

Since 1983, PEPS (Program for Early Parent Support) has been connecting parents in neighborhood-based groups for newborns and older babies. With PEPS, parents create strong, healthy families with concrete support, social connections and parenting resources. PEPS is a 501(C)(3) nonprofit organization.
