ATTESTATION AND DECLARATION OF WITNESSES

The undersigned are the witnesses to the First Codicil to the Last Will and Testament of _____, the original of which is attached hereto. Each of the undersigned declares that:

1. In the presence of the undersigned, the Testator (a) declared to each of the undersigned that said instrument was the Testator’s First Codicil, (b) declared that the Testator executed it for such purpose, (c) requested that each of the undersigned sign said First Codicil as attesting witnesses, and (d) signed said instrument.

2. Each of the undersigned signed said instrument as a witness on the date stated therein in the presence of the Testator and in the presence of the other witness. Each of the undersigned declares that (a) the Testator was then over eighteen years of age and of sound mind and acted freely and without duress, menace, fraud or undue influence, (b) each of the undersigned witnesses was then over eighteen years of age and otherwise competent to be an attesting witness, and (c) this certification is made at the request of the Testator for the purpose of being presented to a court of competent jurisdiction to prove the foregoing First Codicil.

Each of the undersigned certifies under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.
